

Table of Contents

Preface:	i
I. Storm Winds, History, Context Leading to County Land Bank Legislation	1
II. Statutory Framework of County Land Banks and Municipal Land Banks	1
A. History of R.C. 5722.01 et seq.	1
B. Merging R.C. Chapter 5722 onto R.C. Chapter 1724 Corporations	2
III. Nature of County Land Banks: Case Law and Attorney General Opinions	3
A. “Agent” of Governmental Unit	3
B. Governance	5
IV. Differences Between Municipal and County Land Banks	7
V. County Land Banks, Tax Foreclosure and Community Development	8
A. H.B 294 Expedited Administrative Tax Foreclosure (BOR)	8
B. Limited Scope of Jurisdiction of Boards of Revision	9
C. Non-Applicability of the Civil Rules (Statutory Proceeding)	9
D. Rebuttable Evidentiary Presumptions	10
E. “Redemption,” the “Feltner” Case and Federal Litigation	11
F. How Tax Foreclosed Lands Get to County Land Banks (the Process)	12
VI. Super Title Clearance	13
A. Taxes	13
B. Other Liens and Encumbrances	13
C. Municipal Nuisance and Assessment Liens	14
VII. Practical Benefits and Application	15
A. Community Development, Tax Collection and Stabilization	15
B. Economic Development	15
C. Social Service and Faith-Based Engagement	16
D. Limited Transactional Bureaucracy	17
VIII. Enhanced Nuisance Abatement Enforcement for Municipalities (R.C. 715.261)	17
A. Timing and Effectiveness of Nuisance Abatement Liens	17
B. Choice of Remedy	18
C. “Agency” Relationship with Municipalities	18
IX. Expedited Repurposing of Tax Forfeited Properties (R.C. 5723.01 et seq.)	19
A. Current Process for Unsold Tax-Foreclosed Properties	19
B. Tax-Forfeited Properties and County Land Banks	20
X. Funding of County Land Banks	20
A. “DTAC” R.C. 321.261	20
B. Property Sales and Other Revenue	21
C. Related Services	22
D. State Forfeiture Sales	22
XI. Conclusion	23
XII. Questions, Answers, Discussion
APPENDIX:	24
SUPPLEMENT: Feltner Case and Recent Federal Litigation	25